

Do not despise the days of small things!

Foragter ej de ringe dage

Zechariah 4:6-10

N. F. S. Grundtvig, 1837

Georg Neumark, 1621-1681

Transl.: Mogens Lemvig Hansen, 2000

WER NUN DEN LIEBEN GOTT LÄSST WALTEN

1. "Do not des - pise the days of small things!" was said when
2. "Do not des - pise the days of small things!" is said to
3. Do not des - pise that means are hum - ble, here helps no
4. As hum - ble hearts in chests re - sid - ing so is our

3
Is - ra - el a - gain a tem - ple to the God of us, too, as we build a house of God, the Lord of might - y, pow'r - ful hand. Yet e - ven moun - tain tops shall cot - tage church be - low. But God the Spir - it is pro -

6
all things was build - ing in Jer - u - sa - lem, a shad - ow all things. That word has us with com - fort filled. We build a tum - ble: God's Spir - it works as He has planned. Let qui - et, vid - ing the glor - ious light by which we grow, and as a

9
of the for - mer one, the tem - ple of king So - lo - mon.
house of hum - ble state, a shad - ow of God's man - sions great.
lov - ing work pro - ceed, in time the works of hearts suc - ceed.
cor - ner - stone se - cure God's Word for - ev - er will en - dure.

5. Do not despise the days of small things!

It will succeed as Scripture says:

Our gracious Lord, the God of all things,
the feeble hands of men will bless.

Who the foundation humbly laid shall see the house for which they prayed.