

You stop me in the darkness

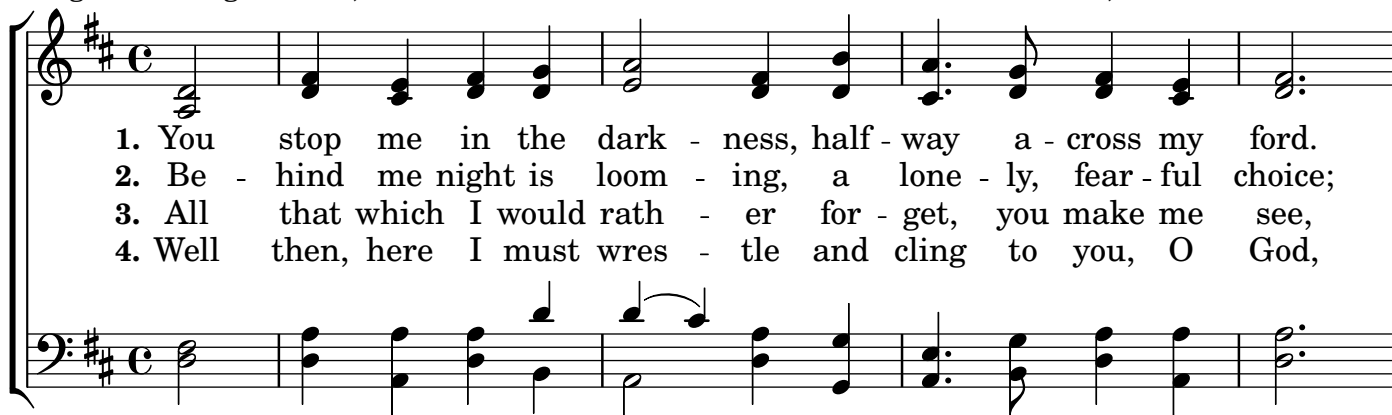

Du standser mig i mørket

Holger Lissner, 1993 – 1996

Melchior Vulpus

Transl.: Mogens Lemvig Hansen, 2023

CHRISTUS, DER IST MEIN LEBEN

1. You stop me in the dark - ness, half - way a - cross my ford.
2. Be - hind me night is loom - ing, a lone - ly, fear - ful choice;
3. All that which I would rath - er for - get, you make me see,
4. Well then, here I must wres - tle and cling to you, O God,

I can - not flee for - ev - er, nor find my peace re - stored.
but you who are be - fore me, you have my broth - er's voice.
the fraud that I com - mit - ted, my lies, and treach - er - y.
de - mand - ing that you bless me des - pite the path I trod.

5. I need no longer flee from myself or you but dwell securely in the knowledge
I met my Penuel.

6. Now I have seen your face, Lord,
and fought in your embrace.
So let me limp on, wounded,
relying on your grace.